Wear white and get ready for a vibrant, high-energy colour celebration! Children will run, dance and move through colour stations featuring bright powder, bubbles floating through the air and upbeat music to keep the energy high. This fun, non-competitive event is all about movement, laughter and celebrating together.	Building on the skills we developed last week, children will extend their parkour abilities through new obstacle combinations, timed challenges and partner activities. This session focuses on confidence, coordination and carrying over previously learnt skills into more complex movement sequences.
